

Sexual Assault Awareness Month 2021

Upcoming Events

STANDING TOGETHER
TO END SEXUAL ASSAULT

Day of Action

Wear teal, post to your social media platforms, & tag us at @sbstesa to bring awareness to sexual assault & to discuss the actions that can be taken to prevent it.

Virtual Book Club

STESA will host a virtual book club using the book, Beartown by Fredrik Backman, every Friday, starting on April 9th from 4pm-5pm. To register email bianca@sbstesa.org

Yelp's Comedy for A Cause

Yelp SB County will be hosting a free virtual comedy show on April 22nd from 5:30 pm - 6:30pm PT, featuring local 805 comedian tag team, Sam Bearman & Sam Silverman. Voluntary Venmo tips will be gathered to go towards supporting STESA. Create a Yelp account to register - it's easy!

Create to Prevent Submissions Due

Submit an original creation of any medium (painting, drawing, TikTok video, infographic, etc.) that focuses on the topic of sexual assault for a chance to win a pair of Beats headphones, gift cards, & STESA swag! Participants will also have the opportunity to have their creations shared on social media. To register email bianca@sbstesa.org

Create to Prevent Online Gallery

Join us for us an online exhibition of creations by our very own community members! Tune in and learn more about how we can prevent sexual assault through art and media. We will be showcasing Create to Prevent submissions on our social media platforms.

Denim Day Social Media Boost & Self-Defense Class

Have your denim make a statement against victim blaming; post a picture of yourself wearing your denim and tag us! Every social media post will count as an entry into a raffle for a chance to win a gift card and STESA swag! We also encourage you to wear your denim to our socially-distanced self-defense class.
